Kate Shugak, was a detective in Anchorage after growing up in the wilderness of America's last frontier, but now she's back at the family homestead in a remote national park in Alaska. Dana Stabenow was born in Anchorage and raised on 75-foot fish tender in the Gulf of Alaska. She knew there was a warmer, drier job out there somewhere and found it in writing. The Collected Short Stories. This genre-spanning collection of 16 short stories features familiar characters like Kate and Jim, Liam and Wy, and Bill and Moses, but also ranges farther afield than many readers will expect, leaping from modern-day Anchorage to 22nd-century Mars to the fantasy kingdom of Mnemosynea. An Archive of Our Own, a project of the Organization for Transformative Works
