Breaking Barriers is a registered charity set up by 3 parents of disabled children. It is our aim to raise awareness and challenge the barriers to inclusion in society for disabled children & young people aged 0-25 years old. The social mobility strategy entitled 'Opening doors, breaking barriers: a strategy for social mobility'. From Nigeria's first bobsled team to the Games' first openly gay U.S. athletes, these athletes are breaking barriers at the Winter Olympics. Fees and fines are very common in public libraries in the United States. Here at the Millvale (PA) Community Library (MCL), we have always been fine-free. MCL's goal is to eliminate barriers (including financial) that might prevent people from accessing the library's materials and services. Many
