

Download Building On Student Diversity Profiles And Activities

Diversity.com is America's most trusted and affordable source for diversity jobs, recruiting / hiring minority executives, managers and professionals. Each EMBA-Global Asia class brings together experienced managers, professionals and executives from around the world. They are a diverse and highly engaged group of individuals who are working at the very forefront of the rapidly changing world economy. At the Efroymsen Diversity Center, "The DC," you'll find multicultural programs, international student services, student organizations, and lots of opportunities to enrich your educational experience. The program's rigorous courses instill the knowledge, skills, and competencies required to lead, including core classes on the theory and practice of public management.