

Download Conrad Weiser Friend Of Colonist And Mohawk

Conrad Weiser (November 2, 1696 – July 13, 1760), born Johann Conrad Weiser, Jr., was a Pennsylvania Dutch pioneer, interpreter and diplomat between the Pennsylvania Colony and Native Americans. History of Conrad Weiser. Conrad Weiser was born in Astaat, Germany, in 1696. His family migrated to America in 1710, settling in New York State. On May 24, 1750, Conrad Weiser found himself facing the loaded gun of Andrew Lycon, a Scots-Irish squatter on Indian-owned land in the Juniata Valley. Sir William Johnson, 1st Baronet (c. 1715 – 11 July 1774), was an Irish official of the British Empire. As a young man, Johnson moved to the Province of New York to manage an estate purchased by his uncle, Admiral Peter Warren, which was located amidst the Mohawk, one of the Six Nations of the Iroquois League.