

Download In Search Of The Missing Light

Mohammad Abbas was last known to have been in Turkey in February of 1999. He had contact with family around this time but has not been seen or heard from since. Emiliano Sala search team discover seat cushions from missing plane on beach in France. The Piper Malibu light aircraft disappeared on Monday last week on its way to Cardiff. There has been "growing concern" reported over the well-being of new Cardiff City signing Emiliano Sala who was a passenger on a light aircraft which went missing between France and the Welsh capital on Monday evening. The man leading a private search of the missing plane carrying Argentine soccer player Emiliano Sala said on Monday there was a "very good chance" of finding the aircraft.