

Download Kokopelli : Fluteplayer Images In Rock Art

This is an authoritative book in Kokopelli, the flute player images in rock art. The authors ventured into the States of Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Utah with a collection of over 300 rock art images with full explanation on this sacred significant figure. Kokopelli is a Hopi word meaning (roughly) wooden-backed; most of the familiar depictions of Kokopelli are copied from Hopi art, which in turn is derived from ancient Anasazi glyphs. The figure of Kokopelli is found chipped into desert stone at various ancient sites throughout the American Southwest. It also appears in contemporary forms, painted on canvas, etched into glassware, printed on Christmas cards, and sculpted into candelabra, in presentations that range from the holy to the kitschy.
