

Download Lyceum And Public Culture In The Nineteenth-century United States

The lyceum movement in the United States was a series of organizations which sponsored a variety of public programs and entertainments. They flourished in the mid-19th century, particularly in the Northeast and Midwest. Lyceum Address As one of Abraham Lincoln's earliest published speeches, this address has been much scrutinized and debated by historians, who see broad implications for his later public policies. Local government in the United States refers to governmental jurisdictions below the level of the state. Most states and territories have at least two tiers of local government: counties and municipalities. PDF version Printable version. Chapter 3 The Preamble: WE THE PEOPLE vs. YAHWEH. The Preamble. WE THE PEOPLE of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity ...