Seventh-day Adventist approaches to theology are affected by the level of authority accorded the writings of Ellen White. Mainstream Adventists believe that White had the spiritual gift of prophecy, but that her writings are subject to testing by the Bible, which has ultimate authority. Chapter 7 Lucifer/Satan. The devil is perceived by many, if they believe that he exists at all, to be a devious-looking creature with two horns who is dressed in a red silky suit, has an arrow-tipped tail, holds a gleaming pitchfork, and echoes a sinister laugh as he whips forlorn souls into submission in a blazing inferno called hell. The name commonly given to the fallen angels, who are also known as demons. With the article (ho) it denotes Lucifer, their chief, as in Matthew 25:41, 'the Devil and his angels' The Deceptions of Satan the Devil. by Ernest L. Martin, Ph.D., 1995. To put the matter in a single phrase, the greatest deception of Satan is to prompt you, me and everyone in the world to believe that he is not Satan.
