The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication is one of the nation's top journalism schools and is home to Arizona PBS, the largest media outlet operated by a journalism school in the world. Discover the power of storytelling: the news story, the feature story, the visual story, the client's story. Our vision is to be the most relevant, student centered and ethically driven accredited journalism and mass communication program in the country. Jayhawk Journalists have been telling great stories for more than 100 years. At the William Allen White School of Journalism and Mass Communications, students work with award-winning teachers and nationally recognized student media outlets. Considering a degree in journalism?
