The members of the North Carolina Board of Elections voted unanimously Thursday to hold a new election in the 9th District. The panel is composed of three Democrats and two Republicans, saying evidence found in a state investigation of alleged fraud in last fall's election has undermined public confidence in the results. The presidency of Richard Nixon began on January 20, 1969, when Richard Nixon was inaugurated as the 37th President of the United States, and ended on August 9, 1974 when he resigned from office, the first (and to date only) U.S. president ever to do so. Fact Checker 100 days of Trump claims Throughout President Trump's first 100 days, the Fact Checker team tracked false and misleading claims made by the president since Jan. 20. John Tyler (March 29, 1790 – January 18, 1862) was the tenth president of the United States from 1841 to 1845 after briefly being the tenth vice president (1841); he was elected to the latter office on the 1840 Whig ticket with President William Henry Harrison.
